

CONTENTS

Volume III, No. 2 (6)/2012

Research Articles

THEORY, HISTORY AND LITERARY CRITICISM /7

Stances of the Narratee, Diana Achim /9

Word – Image Paradigm Shifts in Literature, Diana Brade /21

The Young Cioran and the Disease as an Identity Catalyst, Emanuela Ilie /33

Translators of the British Novel, Călina Paliciuc /43

Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four. Deconstructing Dystopia, Toma Sava /51

Aesthetic Elements of the Absurd in E. Ionesco and S. Beckett's Drama, Claudiu Margan /59

LINGUISTICS, STYLISTICS AND TRANSLATION STUDIES /69

The Predicate and Theories of Linguistic Communication. A Diachronic Approach, Lizica Mihuț, Anca Stoenescu /71

The Subject Complement – a Contrastive Romanian-German Approach, Alina Pădurean /85

Delimitations of the Verb Class in Romanian and English. Morphological, Syntactic, Semantic and Pragmatic Aspects, Manuela Margan /93

Polysemy of stable polylexical units, Angela Savin-Zgardan /101

SOCIAL, CULTURAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL STUDIES /109

Problematical Aspects of the Creator Concept, Florea Lucaci /111

Subversive Image, Liana-Cecilia Bărbos /125

Language – Between Carl Gustav Jung and Hindu Philosophy, Dana Sorana Urs /133

Limit and Transgression from the Historical Perspective of Urbanistic Regulations – Case Study on the City Center of Sibiu, Guttmann Szabolcs-István /143

The History of the Romanian Civil Codes Evolution, Petru Tărchilă /153

Review Articles

Two Times Fernando Pessoa, Emanuela Ilie /161

A New Book about “Junimea”, Doru Scărlătescu /165